RULES FOR MAKING CHANGES TO THE SOP

Page G24

Recognition of New Breeds

1. Before a new breed can be recognised or registered, the onus is on the interested person/s to enquire from the SA Cat registrar whether SACC recognises a specific breed or not.
2. The SA Cat Registrar will be able to confirm whether a breed is:
 - recognised with full championship status OR
 - in the process towards championship status OR
 - not currently registered in SACC
3. Breeds that are not currently registered in SACC may fall into two categories:
 - a breed that, after due consideration and debate by Governing Council of SACC, was listed as “not permitted for recognition and registration.” OR
 - no one has attempted to import/ register the breed
4. In the event that enquires were made with regards to a breed that no one has imported before, the SA Cat Registrar will ask Governing Council to consider acceptance in SACC.
5. Governing Council and the Breed Council Secretary shall gather information on the breed through investigation and research, including whether the breed in question has been accepted for registration in any of the following registering bodies: CFA, TICA, FIFe , CCC of A or GCCF.
6. After discussion and debate, Governing Council will vote whether to accept the breed or not.
7. The Registrar will then inform the Breed Council Secretary and the person/s that made the enquiry of the GC decision.

Registration of New Breeds

1. A new breed that is recognised by Governing Council of SACC will be allocated a breed code by the Breed Council Secretary in consultation with the SA Cat registrar.
2. Once a breed code has been allocated, cats of that particular breed may be duly registered in the SA Cat Register.
3. The Breed Council Secretary will assist the SACR and owner/s of the cats in compiling the new Breed Standard.
4. The Breed Council Secretary will then circulate the Breed Standard to the owner/s, SA Judges' Council, all Judges' Panels and any relevant Breed Groups.

Provisional Status of New Breeds

1. Once a breed has been recognised, allocated a breed code and registered, the breed has Provisional Status.
2. This breed may now be shown in Exhibition Classes (i.e. without championship status).

Championship Status of New Breeds (Obtaining Of Titles)

1. For a recognised breed to attain Championship status, the following requirements must be met:
 - At least five (5) different cats of the new breed must be shown in SACC, in non-championship classes (i.e. they are judged but are not be eligible for championship certificates)
 - at a minimum of five (5) different shows
 - within a period of no less than two (2) years
2. Once the above requirements have been met, the owner/s should submit documented proof of the following to the Breed Council Secretary:
 - The name, registration number and breed code of each cat shown
 - The names of the clubs, show dates and the names of the show managers where the cats were shown
 - Photocopies of show reports of all the rings in which the cats were judged in non-championship classes
3. On receipt of the above-mentioned documents the Breed Council Secretary will verify the information. If all requirements have been met, the Breed Council Secretary will notify the owner/s, Governing Council and all Judges' Panels that the breed has achieved Championship status.
4. Once this information regarding a breed's Championship status has been circulated by the Breed Council Secretary, cats may be shown in championship classes and eligible for certificates at shows.

Recognition of a New Coat Colour / Pattern / Eye Colour In a SACC Recognised Breed

1. A breeder shall submit a proposal to accept a new a colour/ pattern / eye colour in an existing breed via a Breed Group to the Breed Council Secretary for inclusion on a Voting Ballot.
2. All breeders (of that particular breed) with voting rights and judges qualified to judge that breed may vote on the ballot.
3. If the new colour/ pattern / eye colour proposal is successful, it means the colour/ pattern/ eye colour is recognized by SACC.

Registration of a New Coat Colour / Pattern / Eye Colour in a SACC Recognised Breed

1. A new colour/ pattern/ eye colour in a breed that is recognized by Governing Council of SACC will be allocated a colour/ pattern/ eye colour code by the Breed Council Secretary in consultation with the SA Cat registrar.
2. Cats with that particular new colour/ pattern/ eye colour may be registered in the SA Cat register with the appropriate registration code.
3. The Breed Council Secretary will circulate the colour/ pattern/ eye colour description to the owner/s, SA Judges' Council, all Judges' Panels and any relevant Breed Groups.
4. This new colour/ pattern/ eye colour may then be shown in non Championship Classes without CC status.

Championship Status of a New Colour / Pattern / Eye Colour in a SACC Recognised Breed (Obtaining Of Titles)

1. For a recognized new colour/ pattern/ eye colour to attain Championship status, the following requirements must be met:
 - At least one individual of the new colour/ pattern/ eye colour must be shown
 - at a minimum of three (3) different shows
 - in non-championship classes
2. Once the above requirements have been met, documented proof of the following should be submitted to the Breed Council Secretary:
 - The name, registration number and breed / colour / pattern / eye colour code of each cat shown
 - The names of the clubs, show dates and the names of the show managers where the cats were shown

- Photocopies of show reports of all the rings in which the cats were judged in non-championship Classes
3. On receipt of the above-mentioned documents the Breed Council Secretary will verify the information. If all requirements have been met, the Breed Council Secretary will notify the owner/s, Governing Council and all Judges' Panels that the colour/ pattern/ eye colour has achieved Championship status.
 4. Once the Breed Council Secretary has circulated the information that the new colour / pattern / eye colour has achieved Championship status, cats may be shown in championship classes and be eligible for certificates at shows.

The Standard of Points for any breed of cat or colour / pattern shall remain unchanged for a period of three years.

A two-thirds majority vote in favour be required for any change to the SOP to be accepted.

Detailed Colour / Pattern Descriptions

The colour code used for Registration purposes has been added to each colour description.

Please Note:

Eye colour descriptions have not been included in the coat colour descriptions, but are listed with the Standard of Points for each breed.

Here follows the registration codes for eye colours. These codes may be added to the end of a cat's breed+colour code. Do NOT use eye colour codes for usual registration. These codes are to be used only when they represent the unusual, e.g. odd eyed Van PER, blue eyed JBT. If unsure, contact the Cat Register.

- z - Deep clear blue.
- y - Deep clear orange to copper.
- x - One deep clear gold to copper and one deep clear blue.
- w - Green.
- v - Any shade of bluish green or greenish blue.
- u - Clear bright vivid blue.

Shaded Colours

These colours are the result of the effect of the inhibitor gene on the self colours which causes colour to be inhibited along the hair shaft leaving the root area white or silver. The action of the inhibitor gene is recognised in three degrees:

Shell: Highest grade of silver shading. Colour at hair tip only.

Shaded: Medium grade of silver shading. Approximately 1/3 of hair shaft is coloured at tip end.

Smoke: Lowest grade of silver shading. Majority of hair shaft is coloured from tip end.

Tabbies

The tabby pattern is formed by a distinct dark tabby pattern superimposed over a ticked background of agouti hairs. The colour of the pattern should be the equivalent of one of the self, silver or tortoiseshell colours. The tip of the tail and gauntlets on the back of the hind feet are the largest areas that show the cat's true colour. The colour of the pattern should match on the head, body, legs and tail. A pattern that consists of a dark agouti pattern over a light agouti background is incorrect and will be penalised. Markings must show clear contrast with the agouti ground colour, but in lighter colours the contrast will be less apparent. Belly will be paler, unticked and with a double row of spots. The distribution of the markings in Tortoiseshell Tabbies is immaterial. In Silver Tabbies discolouration of the ground colour (tarnishing) is undesirable.

The Classic Tabby Pattern

Pattern Code: Tc

Markings are broad and clear, with no ticking in the pattern. Preferably, but not necessarily solid to the roots. In all silver tabbies the roots should be silver.

- Head: Thumbprints on backs of ears. Barred with an "M" on the forehead. Bars or whorls on cheeks. Light coloured spectacles around eyes. Unbroken line running from the outer corners of the eyes. Spotted whisker pads. Paler chin. Scarab marking on head. Lines from scarab continue between ears and down back of neck to meet butterfly on shoulders.
- Neck & chest: Necklaces distinct and unbroken. The more necklaces the better.
- Body: Distinct dark stripe down centre of back with dark stripe on either side, separated by the agouti ground colour. Whorls on sides of body, each continuing in an unbroken ring. Belly spotted.
- Legs: Evenly ringed, rings coming up high to meet body markings. Dark gauntlets on back of hind feet.
- Tail: Broad rings. Tail ends in a dark tip.
- Faults: White chin or any other white markings.
Indistinct or incorrect markings.
Light coloured tail tip.
Blurred rings, broken necklaces or rings broken on top of the tail.

Mackerel Tabby Pattern

Pattern Code: Tm

Markings are narrower than those of the Classic Tabby, including leg and tail rings.

- Head: Thumbprints on backs of ears. Barred with an “M” on the forehead. Bars or whorls on cheeks. Light coloured spectacles around eyes. Unbroken line running from the outer corners of the eyes. Spotted whisker pads. Paler chin. Scarab marking on head. Lines from scarab continue between ears and down back of neck to meet pattern on shoulders.
- Neck & chest: Necklaces distinct and unbroken. The more necklaces the better.
- Body: Narrow, unbroken dark centre spine line, with a broken line on either side, separated by the agouti ground colour. Narrow lines, which form the mackerel pattern, run vertically down the body. The lines should be as narrow and as numerous as possible. Belly spotted.
- Legs: Evenly ringed, rings coming up high to meet body markings. Rings narrower and more numerous than Classic Tabby. Dark gauntlets on back of hind feet.
- Tail: Rings, as narrow and as numerous as possible, complete or broken. Tail ends in a dark tip.
- Faults: White chin or any other white markings.
Indistinct or incorrect markings.
Light coloured tail tip.
Blurred lines, broken necklaces or rings broken on top of the tail.

Spotted Tabby Pattern

Pattern code: Ts

The spots must be clearly evident with no broken mackerel lines on sides of body. Leg and tail rings narrow.

Head: Thumbprints on backs of ears. Barred with an “M” on the forehead. Bars on cheeks. Light coloured spectacles around eyes. Unbroken line running from the outer corners of the eyes. Spotted whisker pads. Paler chin. Scarab marking on head. Lines from scarab continue between ears and down back of neck to break into spots on shoulders and along spine.

Neck & chest: Necklaces may or may not be present; broken or unbroken.

Body: Good, clear spotting essential. Spots may vary in size, but should be rounded and evenly distributed. Belly well spotted.

Legs: Legs may be barred and / or spotted. Dark gauntlets on back of hind feet.

Tail: Ringed. Tail ends in a dark tip.

Faults: White anywhere other than lips and lower jaw.
Speckling of agouti hairs in spotting.
Indistinct spots.
Spots elongated, resembling broken stripes.
Incorrect spotting pattern, including spots on one side of the body and broken mackerel stripes on the other.
Spotting not solid to the roots, but slight paling at the base of the hair may occur.
Solid spine line in adults.
Kittens may show a rather solid spine line, but some evidence of breaking into spots is desirable.

Ticked Tabby Pattern

Pattern Code: Tt

Body is ticked with face, head, legs and tail showing tabby markings. All stripes and necklaces to be as distinct as possible.

Head: Thumbprints on backs of ears. Barred with an “M” on the forehead. Bars on cheeks. Light coloured spectacles around eyes. Unbroken lines running from the outer corners of the eyes. Spotted whisker pads. Paler chin. Scarab marking on head.

Neck & chest: At least one necklace required, broken or unbroken.

Body: Body hair to be ticked with darker colour on pale ground, affording good contrast. Darker dorsal shading permitted. Under parts may show tabby markings.

Legs: Ringed. Rings narrower and more numerous than Classic Tabby. Dark gauntlets on back of hind feet.

Tail: Ringed. Tail ends in a dark tip.

Faults: When viewed from the top, to be free from noticeable spots or other markings. Evidence of spotting or lines on sides of body. Lack of tabby markings on head, legs and tail.

Marble Tabby Pattern

Pattern Code: Tr

Silver Tabbies

Silver Tabbies are the equivalent of a standard coloured tabby with the addition of the inhibitor (silver) gene, which removes the colour from the roots of the hairs. Thus the roots should be silver or as white as possible, with the agouti ground areas showing contrasting bands of silver and colour at the tips of the hairs and in the patterned areas the colour should extend well down the hairs, but not to the roots. Tarnishing of the coat is a serious fault.

Pointed colours

The Standard for Pointed colours is applicable to the following breeds: Colourpoint Persians, Exotics, British, Birmans, Ragdolls, Siamese and Pointed Tonkinese. The Standard for Birmans and Ragdolls describes the white areas found in these breeds in detail.

Eye colour is blue, but the specific eye colour descriptions for each breed will be found with the Standard of Points for each particular breed.

Coat Colours: Coat colours as for individual colour standards; shading, if any, to appear on back and flanks. Chest and belly to be pale.

Points Colour: Mask, ears, legs, feet and tail dense and clearly defined colour, matching in basic colour on all points, showing clear contrast between points and body colour. Mask complete and (except in kittens) connected by tracings to the ears. Kittens may be paler.

Colour Faults:

- Disqualify exhibit for white toe or toes.
- Eyes tinged green or green rimmed.
- Incomplete mask.

Major awards may be withheld, depending on the degree of the following faults:

- A complete hood.
- Lack of contrast between body and points.
- Heavily marked body, e.g. spots or bars.
- Incorrect colour on nose leather or pads.
- Lack of tracings. (For solid colour pointed cats.)
- Heavy ringing on tail. (For solid colour pointed cats.)

Silver Tortoiseshell Tabby Points

The Tabby Point pattern on a silver ground, patched or mingled at random with red, cream or apricot. Patching on points need not be evenly broken, but each must show some break in colour, no matter how small. Any large area of red, cream or apricot may show some barring. Both colours of the points to be well represented. Presence or absence of a blaze immaterial. Pattern will not to be solid to the roots. Back of hind feet to be shaded with the appropriate colour. Underside of tail will be paler. The silver ground colour to be ticked with the appropriate colours at the tips of the hairs. Ticking and thumbprints will be less apparent on the paler colours. Nose leather, eye rims and pads the same as for the other Tabby points.

Pattern and general colour description as for Tabby Points, but mottling (i.e. red, cream or apricot patching) in all points should be expected. The nose leather, eyelids, lips and pads may be mottled with pink and /or colour.

Patched Colours

Patched or Bi- colours

White, in addition to another colour and / or pattern.

Bi-colour: Patched Code: Bi

Patched with any one colour and white. Patches to be clear, even and well distributed; at least half the coat to be colour and at least 20% to be white. Face to be patched with colour and white. Excessive white hairs in self coloured areas is undesirable.

Fault: Absence of white on face.

Harlequin: Patched Code: Ha

Patched with any one colour and white. Patches to be clear, even and well distributed; with more colour than that required in a Van, but less colour than that required in a Bi-colour. Excessive white hairs in self coloured areas is undesirable.

Van: Patched Code: Va

Patched with any one colour and white. A predominantly white coat, with colour restricted to 10% of the body, i.e. on head and tail, but patching elsewhere is acceptable. Excessive white hairs in self coloured areas is undesirable.

Note: There is no minimum amount of colour. Patching is likely to appear on the head and tail first, then down the back and flanks and possibly the legs, but may be anywhere.

Bi-Colours

Bi-colours may be patched with a self colour, but also with tabby, cameo, smoke or the pointed genes. (eg. Ragdolls.)

Calicos

White, in addition to Tortoiseshell coat colours and / or other patterns.

Calico: Pattern Code: Bi

A tri-colour. Coat patched or mingled at random with red, cream or apricot (varying shades permitted) and white. Any large areas of red, cream or apricot may show some barring. At least half the coat to be colour and at least 20% to be white. Face to be patched with colour and white.

Fault: Absence of white on face.

Harlequin Calico: Pattern Code: Ha

A tri-colour. Patched or mingled at random with red, cream or apricot (varying shades permitted) and white. Any large areas of red, cream or apricot may show some barring. Colour to be more than that required in a Van Calico, but less than that required in a Calico.

Van Calico: Pattern Code: Va

White, any one colour and varying shades of red, cream or apricot. Any large areas of red, cream or apricot may show some barring. A predominantly white coat, with colour restricted to 10% of the body, i.e. on head and tail, but patching elsewhere is acceptable. Patches may appear together or separately, but equally; in clear, broken random patches which must be even in colour.

Note: There is no minimum amount of colour. Patching is likely to appear on the head and tail first, then down the back and flanks and possibly the legs, but may be anywhere.

Tonkinese Colours

Mink Pattern

Solid colours

The body should be a lighter shade of the points colour and be free of tabby markings. The legs and feet may be a lighter shade of the other points colour but the points and body colour should match in tone. In all solid colours the leather of the paw pads may be lighter than the nose leather and may have a rosy undertone. Note: (ghost tabby markings may be found on the points of Red, Cream and Apricot adults and should not detract from an otherwise good cat)

Tortoiseshell Mink

The base colour should be brown, blue, chocolate, lilac, cinnamon, fawn or caramel that has been well broken with varying shades of red, cream or apricot and is free from tabby markings. Any large areas of red, cream or apricot may show some tabby markings. The distribution of colour on the points is immaterial. The base colour on the points should be darker than the base colour on the body, although the legs and feet may be paler than the other points. The colour on the points and body should match in tone but may not merge evenly.

Tabby Pattern

The tabby pattern is formed by markings of the solid pattern colour on a background of agouti hairs. The pattern may be ticked, mackerel, spotted or classic/marbled. The points markings should show vivid contrast with the background colour, but may be less contrasting in the dilute colours (Blue, Lilac, Fawn, Caramel, Cream and Apricot) and may be paler on the legs than on the other points. The colour of the markings on the points and body should match in tone. Tabbies in the dilute colours will be lighter in tone than the equivalent solid colour. The markings can take longer to develop in Reds, Creams and Apricots. The points do not merge with the body colour as they do in non-tabby patterns but the markings on the points should be darker than the markings on the body.

General Body Markings:	The markings will depend upon the nature of the tabby pattern but will appear as a lighter shade of the points markings against the agouti background colour. The markings will lighten down the flanks to the under parts, which will be a paler shade of the background colour and may show spots. The Tonkinese expression results in a broad band of more solid colour over the top of the head, along the back and into the base of the tail that is more noticeable with maturity. There should be one or more broken, or unbroken, necklets on the neck/upper chest.
General Points Colour:	As for solid pointed colours, matching colour essential, but varied tones acceptable.
General Head Markings:	There should be a clearly defined "M" on the forehead, "spectacle" markings around the eyes, a ribbon running from the outer edge of the eye and spotted whisker pads. Ears are solid colour but show clear "thumb marks" which may be less apparent in dilute colours, and mottled in tortie tabbies. The nose leather may be pinkish outlined with colour that matches the paw pads or more solid in colour.
Eyes:	Eye colour as for appropriate Solid Point colour. Rims dark or toning with points.
Nose leather:	Conforming to recognised Standard for the particular colour of points, or pink, outlined with the appropriate solid colour.
Eyes, nose rim & lips	Edged with the appropriate colour.
Legs:	Clearly defined broken stripes. Solid markings on the back of the hind legs. The leg markings may be paler than the other points.
Pads:	Conforming to recognised Standard for appropriate solid colour.
Tail:	Clearly defined broken rings.

Tortoiseshell Tabby Mink

The base colour should be brown, blue, chocolate, lilac, cinnamon, fawn or caramel tabby that has been well broken with varying shades of red, cream or apricot tabby. The distribution of colour on the points is immaterial. The base colour on the points should be darker than the base colour on the body, although the legs and feet may be paler than the other points. The colour on the points and body should match in tone but may not merge evenly.
